Information Management

United States Army Alaska Administrative Publication Index

Summary. This pamphlet indexing all United States Army Alaska (USARAK) administrative publications has been revised. This pamphlet lists all official USARAK administrative publications, including supplements, regulations, pamphlets, circulars, and posters. It identifies publications by their number and title, listing any officially issued changes. This pamphlet also provides the publication dates and the proponents of record. This revision updates the listings and provides new superseded and rescinded publication listings of those publications superseded or rescinded since this pamphlet's last publication date. The information in this pamphlet is constantly being updated; please call the Directorate of Information Management, Administrative Services Division for the most current information.

Applicability. This pamphlet applies to USARAK and USAG-AK units, activities and agencies located at Forts Richardson and Wainwright.

Interim changes. Interim changes to this pamphlet are not official unless the Director of Information Management (DOIM) authenticates them. Users will destroy interim changes on their expiration date unless sooner superseded or rescinded.

Suggested improvements. The proponent of this pamphlet is the Directorate of Information Management, Administrative Services Division, Publications Office. The DOIM invites users to send comments and suggested improvements on Department of the Army (DA) Form 2028 (Recommended Changes to Publications and Blank Forms) directly to APVR-RIM-ASD-PO.

Chapter 1

Introduction

1-1. Purpose

This is a USARAK regulation, supplement, pamphlet, circular, memorandum, and poster index that is published by Directorate of Information Management, Administrative Services Division, Publications Office. Changes, as they occur, are published in the Monthly Bulletin. Please contact the Administrative Services Division for the most current information.

1-2. References

a. Required references.

(1) DA Pamphlet 25-30 (Consolidated Index of Army Publications and Blank Forms) is cited in paragraph 1-4.

b. Referenced forms.

(1) DA Form 2028 (Recommended Changes to Publications and Blank Forms) is cited in the suggested improvements statement.

1-3. Abbreviations

Abbreviations used in this pamphlet are listed in the glossary.

1-4. Numbering

All administrative publications are numbered per DA Pamphlet 25-30.

1-5. Joint publications

Identify publications published jointly with the Alaskan Command (ALCOM) by the ALCOM publication number following the USARAK publication number.

1-6. Classified publications

Identify classified publications by the appropriate security classification marking preceding publication number. AR 380-5 explains these classification markings. (This edition of the index does not list any classified publications.)

1-7. Status column

An asterisk (*) in the "Status" column indicates that the publication is new, was revised, or that a change was issued since this index's last version. The marking "UR" indicates the publication is currently under revision.

1-8. Distribution symbols

USARAK Pamphlet 25-32 explains each distribution scheme.

1-9. Proponent of record

The proponent of record is indicated by the office symbol in the "Proponent" column. The proponent is the agency that is responsible for the information contained in that publication.

USARAK Pamphlet 25-1

1-10. Availability and requisitioning

USARAK publications are available on the USARAK web site at <http://www.usarak.army.mil/publications/>. USARAK posters are available from either the stockroom or the proponent, as indicated in the "Stocked By" column in chapter 6.
